THE CHANGE OF LIFE

INTELLIGENT WOMEN PREPARE

Dangers and Pain of This Critical Period
Avoided by the Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that the most critical period in a woman's existence is the change of life, and that the anxiety felt by women at this time draws near is not without reason?

If her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, it is at this time likely to become active and, with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden.

At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to begin their destructive work. Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, dizziness, headache, dread of impending evil, sounds in the ears, timidity, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and incontinence are promptly weakened by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the world's greatest remedy for women at this trying period, and may be relied upon to overcome all distressing symptoms and carry them safely through to a healthy and happy old age.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism, and builds up the weakened nervous system as no other medicine can.

Mrs. A. E. G. Hyland, of Chestertown, Md., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham, says:

"I had been suffering with falling of the womb for years and was passing through the change of life. My womb was badly swollen. I had a good deal of soreness, dizzy spells, headaches, and was very nervous. I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that all those distressing symptoms left me, and I have passed safely through the change of life a well woman."

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. It is free and always helpful.

MERRITT-TIMBERLAKE WEDDING CARDS OUT.

The following invitations have been received by the relatives and close friends of the happy couple:
Mr. and Mrs. James C. S. Timberlake request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter to
Martha Amanda

Mr. Charles Wadsworth Merritt on the morning of Thursday, the first of June, One Thousand nine Hundred and five at ten o'clock Fairmount Chapel Monticello, Tennessee.

Mr. Merritt is one of the most popular and prominent young men in Pensacola and Miss Timberlake his fiancée is the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. S. Timberlake formerly of Hotel Esplanade and during their residence there she became favorably known in a choice social set.

On both sides of her family Miss Timberlake comes of excellent ancestry and "the Timberlakes" are among the best and oldest families of both Virginia and Kentucky, so that, aside from her own charming personality and the bridegroom-elect's assured social position, Mr. Merritt's bride will be a welcome acquisition.

MISS MAMIE STEWART'S SIXTEENTH BIRTHDAY.

Miss Mamie Stewart celebrated the day she was "sweet sixteen" by a birthday party at her home Thursday evening.

The rooms were beautifully decorated, the dining room being very pretty in yellow and white. In the center of the table 16 candles were burning and from them ribbons extended to the four corners of the table. Here Miss Bertha Stewart and Miss Irene Miner gracefully presided in dainty summer frocks.

Those present were Misses Ada Richards, Mary Morgan, Dora Sullivan, Vivian Byrd, Lillian Smith, Jettie Allen, Eunice Boyer, Bessie Jones, Hilma Greene, Annie May Hall, Florence Halsey, Laura Joyner, Fannie May Holden, Nellie Andrews, Georgia Rogers, Ella Broughton, Ernestine Smith and Ethel Broughton.

Also Messrs. Gray McKinnon, Dent Laney, John Eagan, Holmes Hopkins, Walter Biggs, Devere D. Milley, Osmond Williams, Frank Rogers, Howard Burton, Frank Bannerman, John Lewis, Cuyler McMillan, Charles Ross and T. T. Phillips.

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. It is free and always helpful.

STATEMENT OF ANOTHER MEMBER FLA. U. D. C.

The Journal is glad to publish the following communication as it appears to be written in a spirit of fairness to all concerned:

Editor "Journal," Pensacola, Fla.: Assuming that The Journal is at all times in favor of truth and fair play, I do not hesitate to ask The Journal to publish the following which I hope will end this controversy:

The article published in The Journal of the 10th inst. and signed "Member of Convention Florida Division U. D. C.," is without the least foundation in fact, and does a gross injustice to the present administration of the division as well as to the division as a whole, and to Mr. Cooley in particular. Therefore I am constrained to set before the readers of The Journal the whole truth—hewing to the line, letting the chips fall as they may.

I know as much about the doings of that convention, its pros and cons and the animus of its constituent elements, as any member thereof and I most emphatically declare here, now and for all time that, Mrs. Cooley was never at any time, before or during the existence of the convention, directly or indirectly a candidate herself or the candidate of any one or more of her friends in any sense of the word whatever.

I further know that Mrs. Cooley would not have accepted the presidency had it been tendered her.

ANOTHER MEMBER OF FLORIDA DIVISION U. D. C.

RETURNED FROM BAPTIST CONVENTION.

Mrs. Dora Donaldson returned Friday from Kansas City where, with Mrs. W. D. Chipley she represented the ladies of the First Baptist church this city at the Women's Missionary Union during the great Southern Baptist convention.

The convention was a very fine one and the attendance the largest ever held. The body has grown so large that the next place of meeting was not decided upon but the matter was referred to a committee who is given till January to investigate the ability of the various candidates to entertain the convention.

Floridians generally and Florida Baptists especially will be interested to learn that, while the matter is not and will not be definitely decided till the committee reports, there is a strong inclination to meet in Jacksonville next year.

The delegates to the W. M. U. were treated to an enjoyable automobile ride to all the points of attraction, by the ladies of Kansas City. The weather was quite cool making an extra coat and winter underwear quite comfortable.

Mrs. Chipley, who is vice-president of the W. M. U. of the Florida Baptist convention, stopped over in St. Louis and from there goes to Marshall, N. C. to visit her son Mr. Dudley Chipley, expecting to return home the last of May.

CHARMING LAUNCH PARTY.

Miss Mary Thompson, chaperoned by her mother, gave a very enjoyable launch party Thursday night over to the life saving station where a delightful supper was served and the surf bathing enjoyed in the moonlight.

Miss Thompson's guests were Mr. Wagner, Mr. W. D. Ferriss, Miss Hays, Mr. Scanlan, Miss Barnes and Mr. B. F. Bach.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mrs. E. H. Gould announces the engagement of her daughter Miss Lomie to Mr. William C. Dillard of Montgomery, Ala., the wedding to take place about the middle of June.

Miss Gould is extremely popular in a large circle of friends among both young and old, all of whom unite in best wishes for her and in cordial congratulations for the happy man.

JUNE WEDDING IN ALABAMA.

Many persons in this city will be interested in the following invitations which have been received by Pensacola friends:

Mrs. Peake gave a special "lone" prize which went to Mrs. Beyer. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Walter White on East Gregory.

CHEER UP, MOTHER.

If there is a boy I admire in the suburb in which I live, which suburb is in Connecticut by the way, it is Tom Bingham. He is tall and sturdy and good tempered and a favorite with boys and girls; he has a well developed sense of humor and I never meet him but I find that we two have a good deal in common, in spite of our fifty years' disparity.

The other evening I went into town in the same car with his mother and father and I had quite a chat with Mrs. Bingham, who is very different from Mrs. Worthing.

Our subject was children and I confessed to her that I was clean discouraged about my boy Harry; that it did seem as if all my talking and advice and splendid example since he was born had been thrown away on him and that he seemed more thoughtless and hopeless every day.

"Why, I'm perfectly astonished to hear you say so," she said. "I was telling Mr. Bingham only last night that if there was a manly, well brought up boy in the place it was your Harry and he agreed with me. Dear me, if you had such a chap as Tom to bring up you might well despair. I sometimes wonder whether we'll ever get any credit for having tried to bring him up in the way he should go."

"Why, Mrs. Bingham, surely you are joking," said I. "Your son Tom is the one boy in town that I think is a credit to his parents. He always lifts his cap when he meets me; the other day, I saw him helping the washer-woman over a bad place on the icy pavement, and I know that he is a great favorite with the other boys—and girls, too. I don't believe you know your boy Tom at all."

And then it came over me like a thunder clap. "Do I know my boy Harry? Does he show off his best points at home?"

And it struck me that perhaps Mrs. Bingham and I were better off in our sons than either of us imagined. Charles Battell Loomis in Brown Book.
